

The Reason Why My Life is in Your Hands

(Cerrie Tinga-Love)

When I wake up you are with me
When I go to sleep you're there
Every passing moment
My Jesus, I know you care.
And when the storms of life arrive
And the future is unknown
It's then I come to know you more and more.

For you're always there to catch me when I fall
You answer my every call
Your peace warms my heart and soul
My strength comes from you alone

You count the hairs upon my very head
You fill me up with your daily bread
You give me hope in this sinful world
And that's the reason why my life is in your hands.
